Welcome Students

International Friendships, Inc. is a registered Ohio State University organization and Christian community group promoting friendship and hospitality for international students and scholars.

We are a part of the University of Interfaith Association. We welcome students of all cultures and religious backgrounds. IFI links international students with American volunteers from local churches to help practical, social, and spiritual needs. IFI was founded in 1979 in Columbus, Ohio.

IFI at Urbana University

International Friendship has expanded to Urbana University since 2011 and to a total of 29 campuses in the USA.

IFI Services

IFI volunteers are here to help you with Airport Pickup, Friendship Partners, and Holiday Hosting and organizing local sightseeing trips and activities.

Friendship Partner

Meet monthly and become friends with an English-speaking partner. You can do fun activities together such as sharing a meal, going shopping, celebrating the holidays and much more.

Sign up for any activity or service or learn more by contacting by visiting our website at urbana.ifiusa.org.

Activities

IFI volunteers plan activities and short trips throughout Ohio for you to experience and enjoy more of the American culture. We provide transportation and food. You may need to bring money for the different activities that we have planned.

Airport Pickup

IFI volunteers are willing to give you a warm welcome to the USA by providing airport pickup when you arrive.
